

Little Black Riding Hood and Pinocchio

Once upon a time, there were two friends:
Pinocchio and Little Black Riding Hood.

One day in the forest they picked a mushroom

.Suddenly, there was a giant tornado in the forest. The forest was destroyed. They were separated. Pinocchio was in a cave and little Black Riding Hood was next to the cave. The open passage was closed so Pinocchio was locked. Little Black Riding Hood met an ogre in the forest. He opened the passage.
Pinocchio went out of the cave. They met in the forest. They all lived happily ever after.
